

Thoughtful, exceptional care and services seniors desire in a comfortable retirement community setting.

Lexington Court Care Center offers residents a complete continuum of care so they can find peace of mind knowing that as their needs change the services they receive can be adjusted while remaining at the same location. Services include independent living, a full-range of rehabilitation services and skilled nursing services.

Lexington Court Care Center provides all the amenities and services seniors desire in a comfortable retirement community setting. Independent living provides the ideal solution for you or a loved one who seeks a private and supportive environment to maintain independence while also having additional supports available if necessary. Skilled nursing services provide structure and support to enhance and maintain one's unique rehabilitative needs.

Our recreational program is varied and includes group or individual activities geared toward residents' interest. Residents can enjoy holiday events, specialized parties and other socializing activities.
