

Thoughtful, exceptional care and services seniors desire in a comfortable retirement community setting.

Austinburg Nursing and Rehabilitation Center offers residents a complete continuum of care so they can find peace of mind knowing that as their needs change the services they receive can be adjusted while remaining at the same location. Services include assisted living, a full-range of rehabilitation services and skilled nursing services.

Our community has a full complement of services provided by qualified staff who understand and accept the responsibility of providing quality care 24/7, 365 days a year. Our primary goal is to prepare individuals to be successful when they return to the community and to their daily life.

Our recreational program is varied and includes group or individual activities geared toward residents' interest. Residents can enjoy holiday events, specialized parties and other socializing activities.
